

ERMS Fitness Center Handbook

Rules and Regulations

1. All patrons who enter the ERMS Fitness Center must be a paid member. Anyone who uses the fitness center must pay dues outlined at the end of the handbook. All members will be charged yearly or at the beginning of each trimester. (see dues)
2. All recommended patrons and any ERCU#1 faculty member that would like to be a member of the ERMS Fitness Center must attend an orientation session and pay dues in order to receive their key FOB for access to center. In order to be a recommended patron (persons not employed by ERCU#1) a person must have a recommendation from any current ERCU#1 employee that is a member of the ERMS fitness center. ERCU#1 employees may pick up a recommendation sheet from the front of the sign in booklet on the desk in the back corner of fitness center. Please note that all employees recommending a new patron to the fitness center must sign their name to the recommendation sheet that they are giving to a possible new member.
3. Any ERMS Fitness Center member is responsible for the behavior of and damage caused by any dependent 18 years and younger. Please note any child using the equipment should be paying to use the fitness center.
4. Anyone using the ERMS Fitness Center will be doing so at their own risk. ERCU #1 is not responsible for any injury that may occur to individuals participating in any exercise activity. These activities are done on a voluntary basis.
5. Anyone using the ERMS Fitness Center is required to sign in and out each time they access the facility. A book is placed on the desk in the back corner of the fitness center for all members to sign in and out.
6. The ERMS Fitness Center is intended to provide a clean, safe, and enjoyable place to exercise for general fitness purposes. The equipment is not intended for bodybuilding or heavy lifting.
7. Attire:
 - Proper athletic attire must be worn at all times.
 - Tennis shoes must be worn at all times. Absolutely no sandals or open toed shoes are permitted.
 - This is a school facility and anyone using it should be dressed appropriately.
8. Food is not permitted in the ERMS Fitness Center.
9. Water or sports drinks are permitted provided that they are in a sealable plastic container.

10. Any audio equipment other than fitness center multimedia should be for personal use only and equipped with headphones.
11. ERCU #1 is not responsible for lost or stolen items.
12. Anyone using the ERMS Fitness Center is expected to pick-up after themselves, discard trash, and remove personal items.
13. Anyone using the ERMS Fitness Center is required to wipe down cardio and strength equipment after each use and use hand sanitizer upon entry. Disinfecting wipes are available for this purpose.
14. Fitness Center multimedia equipment should only be used if everyone using the center is agreeable. Any content played on the ERMS Fitness Center multimedia equipment should be suitable for a school environment.
15. Anyone using the ERMS Fitness Center should abide by the posted hours. Faculty and staff are not to use the fitness center during their work day, prep blocks included.
16. Student use of the ERMS Fitness Center will always take precedence over member use. (The 21st Century After-School grant may be using the ERMS Fitness Center from time to time. This typically takes place between 4:00 and 5:30 pm, Mon.—Thurs.)
17. Damaged equipment should be reported to the ERMS office staff as soon as possible and recorded on form provided at desk in fitness center.
18. Injuries occurring during use of the ERMS Fitness Center should be reported to the ERMS office staff as soon as possible.
19. ERCU #1 reserves the right to refuse access to any member, employee or immediate family member who violates any rule or regulation, or misuses or abuses ERMS Fitness Center equipment.
20. Any member may bring a guest to the fitness center no more than 5 times provided they pay the $5.00 guest fee and fill out the form that is provided in the front of the sign in book on the back desk. The money and form may then be placed in the locked drop box hanging on the wall by the doors and water fountains.
21. Any formal problems, questions, or concerns regarding the ERMS Fitness Center should be submitted via e-mail to Ashley Beard at abeard@ercu1.net. Please clearly indicate the issue being addressed, and be sure to include your name and phone number.
