

What is a Technology Violation (TV)?

A student exhibiting improper handling of the device, case, or bag MAY be doing the following:

- failing to use two hands whenever possible
- pushing the touch screen too hard
- failing to replace the case cover when the device is not in use
- sharing or allowing others to be in possession of their device
- removing the device from its case

A student exhibiting improper transporting of the device, case, or bag MAY be doing the following:

- failing to carry the bag in proper messenger style
- failing to place the device in the bag when transporting
- acting carelessly when moving through the halls while carrying the device
- allowing someone else to carry their device
- removing their device from the bag before arriving at the next class (for instance while socializing at their locker or while using the rest room)

A student exhibiting improper storage of the device, case, or bag MAY be doing the following:

- failing to keep the device in the bag when placed in the locker
- failing to hang the bag from a coat hook while stored in their locker
- taking the bag home at night or keeping it in someone else's locker
- docking their device in the incorrect slot and or cart
- carelessly docking their device in the slot or cart
- failing to dock their device at the appropriate time
- failing to replace the cover before docking the device

A student taking improper care of the device, case or bag MAY be doing the following:

- cleaning the screen with an unapproved material or substance
- handling the device with excessively dirty hands
- using an unapproved stylus or other object to operate the touch screen
- personalizing, decorating, or defacing the device, case, or bag in any way

Email

- Students are to use their school email address for school purposes. Repeated use of email for non-school related purposes will result in a TV
- Students can receive email from outside addresses, but they can only send messages to ercu1.net addresses. Therefore, students should be mindful of who they give out there address to. Inappropriate messages sent to their account will be their responsibility to delete to report.

